

U.S. TURBINE & ACCESSORY, LLC.

QUALITY TERMS AND CONDITIONS

U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC. Standard terms and Conditions for Commercial Orders apply to this purchase:

If the Material Is too heavy or dimensions are too large for UPS ground do not ship via UPS Freight. Those charges will be rejected by U.S. Turbine & Accessory, LLC. Contact U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC with weight and dimensions and we will advise alternate transportation. All parts are subject to our inspection. Material certification, C of C and traceability are required. FAA-8130, EASA FORM ONE, or dual certification will be requested when applicable. Interchangeable parts can only be accepted with documents evidencing proof of interchangeability prior to shipment. Any changes in product design or characteristics must be notified to U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC for proper evaluation and acceptance prior to shipment. All hazardous materials must be packed in accordance with current IATA regulations and proper documentation such as R.A. declarations & MSDS must be attached to the shipment. Vendor shall implement a quality management system and the use of statistical techniques for product acceptance and related instructions for acceptance by our organization. Your organization and suppliers should maintain an approved vendor list or use customer-designated or approved external providers and ensure when required the use of approved special process sources, special requirement, critical items or key characteristics. Elastomer/Rubber products such as seals, hoses, etc. must have 80% of shelf life remaining. Packaging of rubber products and identification must comply IAW current ARP5316 STANDARD. Bearings must have current lubrication dates. Time controlled rotatables must have historical records. Vendor must prevent the use of counterfeit parts. U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC., our customer or any regulatory institution reserves the right to inspect all vendor and sub-tier vendor's facilities and records if deemed necessary. Requirements or characteristics specified on this document must flow down to any subcontractors, or sub-tier suppliers when applicable. The vendor will ensure employees are aware of their contribution to product or service conformity, product safety and the importance of ethical behavior. Any records pertaining to this purchase must be retained by the suppliers or sub-tier suppliers for a minimum of 7 years per regulatory requirements unless otherwise specified. Supplier must notify U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC of any nonconforming product after shipping of product and must obtain U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC. approval for nonconforming products disposition. Suppliers must notify U.S Turbine & Accessory, LLC of changes in product and / or process, changes of suppliers, changes of manufacturing facility location. Vendor must design and develop control. Vendor must report any product malfunctions, defects, and unairworthy conditions to the concerned stakeholders.